

Please do not allow a few companies to dominate our ability to get news and information. The airwaves are a public resource, and should serve the public more than they should be a money-making forum for a very few large corporations, whose interests rarely coincide with the welfare of most people.

Thank you.